

Charles BEAN (1850-1932)

Charles was aged 7 when he migrated to Tasmania on the 'Trade Wind' in 1858. Charles sailed on the 'Trade Wind' with his parents, Robert (1809-1900) and Martha nee Huff (1813-1886) and siblings: Henry (1834-1903), Ann (1837-1910), Robert Jun. (1839-1914), James (1842-1882), Walter (1844-1896), John (1846-1906), George (1848-1928), Sabina (1849-1931) and Lewis (1855-1941). The Bean family were sponsored by William Stammers Button of Launceston. [See Robert and Martha Bean's entry for more about Stammers.]

Charles was baptised on 21 January 1853 at Bardwell.

Charles married Cecelia Chamley (1849-1923) at Longford on 10 June 1885. Cecelia was born in February 1849 in Longford to ex-convict George Chamley and Sarah nee Howe. Cecelia spent all of her of her life at Longford.

Charles and Cecelia lived at George Street in Longford. Charles was a labourer. They did not have any children. On Charles death, on 10 February 1932, at Longford, he left his estate to Ivy Jean Ayers [possibly the wife of William Bye], Lewis Bean (brother), Nellie Bean (niece), Lillias Bean (niece), Nellie Boon (niece) and Arthur Blazeley. Cecelia passed away at Longford, aged 75, on 29 August 1923.
