

Lewis (Louis) BEAN (1853-1941)

Lewis (aka Louis) migrated on the 'Trade Wind' with his parents, Robert (1809-1900) and Martha nee Huff (1813-1886) and siblings: Henry (1834-1903), George (1848-1928), Ann (1837-1910), Robert Jun. (1839-1914), James (1842-1882), Walter (1844-1896), John (1847-1906), Charles (1853-1932), Sabina (1849-1931) and Lewis (1855-1941). The Bean family were sponsored by WS Button of Launceston. Lewis was aged 4 when arriving in Tasmania, born about 1854 in Bardwell.

Lewis was married twice. Firstly, to Alice Cooke (1860-1903) who was aged 34 at the time of marriage on 14 May 1896 at Longford. She died on 16 November 1903 at Longford, at the age of 41. He remarried on 26 March 1913 at Longford to Mary Eveline (Amy) Miller (1866-1949). She was born on 17 May 1866 at Longford and died on 29 June 1949, aged 83, at Longford. She was living at Cressy at the time of her death.

Louis lived at Godrick Street, Longford and was occupied as a labourer. He was a member of the Foresters' Lodge for over 50 years. No children were born from either marriage. He enjoyed gardening. Lewis died on 1 December 1941 at Longford, aged 86. He was buried at Christ Church, Longford.