

Susan (aka Louisa Susan Cutting) QUARRY (1852-1891)

Susan was aged 5 when arriving in Tasmania on the 'Trade Wind' in 1858. She was accompanied by her parents Thomas (1823-1909) and Ann (nee Clarke 1824-1911) and her siblings: Arthur (1847-1919), Fanny (Agatha Frances 1849-1934), William (Henry 1851-1936), Emma (1854-1923) and Ellen (1857-1944). They were sponsored by J S Waddell of Launceston, most likely Joseph Stammers Waddell, Jun.

Susan was born in January 1853 at Buckworth, Huntingdonshire in England.

Louisa married Henry James Ferrall (1850-1926) in the house of Thomas C Quarry, Tamar Street, Launceston according to the rites and ceremonies of the Primitive Methodists. Although shown as being married in the home of Thomas C Quarry, he was shown as a witness by the name of Thomas Christmas Cutting. Husband, Henry, was the son of Charles James Ferrall (1812-1855) and Sarah nee Worth (1823-1896). Charles and Sarah travelled to Tasmania on the 'Whirlwind' in 1855. Charles lost his life at sea on the voyage.

Susan and Henry had four sons and one daughter. Louisa passed away in St John Street, Launceston on 2 December 1891, aged 39 years. Cause of death was Hemiplegia which is a result of a brain injury paralysing one side of the body. The most common cause is a stroke (when a bleed or blood clot damages part of the brain), but it can also result from a head injury or infection. Henry remarried on 3 March 1892 in Launceston and died on 1 June 1926 in Kogarah, New South Wales.
