

Mary Ann REEVE (1834-?)

Mary Ann was aged 23, single, literate, a cook and general servant when migrating on the 'Trade Wind' arriving in Tasmania in 1858. She was sponsored by Ralph Terry of Hobart Town and discharged during the afternoon of 9 April 1858 to Mr Thomson. Mary Ann was discharged to Mr Thomson at the same time as Emma Reeve (1832-1908). It is likely they were sisters and their parents were Samuel (1806-1887) and Emma nee Dale (1811-1905).

In the 1841 England Census for Back Street, Framlingham, Plomesgate, Suffolk

Samuel Reeve, 35, 1806, born Suffolk

Emma Reeve, 30, 1811, born Suffolk

Emma Reeve, 9, 1832, Suffolk

Mary, 7, 1834, born Suffolk

Eliza, 4, 1837, born Suffolk

Samuel, 1, 1840, born Suffolk

No records were found for Mary Ann in Tasmania or elsewhere. Emma's mother remained in England as she was recorded in the 1901 as being a widow living with her daughter Emma and son-in-law William Whitehand.
