

Ann Elizabeth STANDALOFT (1853-1935)

Annie was aged four when migrating to Tasmania with her parents, Thomas Standaloft (1829-1858) and Jane nee Found (1830-1897). Her father died at sea just prior to the 'Trade Wind' arriving in Tasmania in 1858. He died on 21 January 1858 under so-called 'suspicious circumstances'. Her mother, Jane, remarried another passenger from the 'Trade Wind', John Bonner (1831-1928) approximately one year after her father's death.

Ann was born on 9 March 1853 in Yorkshire, England. 'Trade Wind' records incorrectly show her native place as being Germany. Ann married John Cutler Green (1851-1914) at 'Somercotes', Ross, on 14 April 1877. John was the son of John Cutler Green, Sen. (1815-1863) and Harriett nee Presnell (1827-1857).

Annie and John had eight children. All were born in Tasmania and five remained residing in Tasmania. The other three relocated to Victoria.

Annie died on 23 November 1935 at the residence of her daughter, Grace Evaline (1890-1963) and her son-in-law Herbert Scott Brown of 115 Howick Street, Launceston. She was aged 82. Annie's husband, John, predeceased her by about 21 years, having died at Trevallyn, Launceston, on 27 July 1914, aged 63.
